Song of the Lakes. Song of the Lakes has been repeatedly voted “Northern Michigan’s Best Folk Artist.” Their high energy performances combine Celtic and Scandinavian traditions with Michigan maritime history in a show that weaves humor and lore, and inspires hand-clapping audience participation.

Grand Traverse Pipes & Drums. Grand Traverse Pipes & Drums, founded 36 years ago, perform ancient Gaelic airs, electrifying Highland dances, and the rousing marches of the British Army. They have been chosen as the Governor’s escort for several special occasions. The Grand Traverse Pipes & Drums wear kilts in the Ancient Sutherland tartan. They are led by Pipe Major Peter Deneen, Drum Sergeant Clark Harner, and Drum Major Les Thornburg.

Tongue Family String Band. Steve and Amy, along with their daughters Abby (age 15), Lara (age 13), and Emma (age 11) make up the Tongue Family String Band, a family Celtic string band that has been active in the Northern Michigan music scene for the past two years. Their show includes Irish step dance and audiences always enjoy the novelty of seeing a family that performs and dances together.

Genot Picor. Genot Winter Elk Picor’s stories, songs and dances have thrilled audiences from Kentucky to Sault Ste. Marie, and from New York state to Ironwood. Descended from the French and Huron people of the Great Lakes region, this well-traveled performer’s interactive show is touched with warmth and fun for all ages.

Geoff Kaufman - Music of the Sea. One of today’s great voices in maritime music, Geoff Kaufman has been called “one of the finest and strongest tenor voices on the folk scene.” He is most widely known for his music of the sea, a specialty he began in 1976 and honed over the last twenty-four years during his employment at Mystic Seaport.

Project Lakewell. Project Lakewell is a living history program designed to help interpret the voyageurs’ place in maritime history and in the chief commerce of the day – fur trade. The program is rich with stories of these legendary figures and the songs that were part of their everyday experience.

Located on Rotary Island.
